As a consequence they nearly freeze their cars off waiting for the trains to make their uppearance. The cars are not running for the reason that the new cable has not yet arrived. The old worn-out rope has been patched up temporarily and put in motion, because when it stops the cable on the North Twenty fourth street line must also stop. But the old cable is too weak to longer stand the strain of pulling cars.

They know how to care rheumatism in Pennsivania! Mr. J. F. Meighan, a Pittsburg eigar dealer, awoke once morning with an attack of rheumatism in his right arm. Working around the store during the forence made it worse. By noon the pain was so severe that he could not raise his hand to his head and had to carry his arm in a sing. One of his outstoners, so learning the facts, weat across the street to E. E. It eased the pain and reduced the swe ling so that by the next morning he could use his arm, and by the second morning was entirely well. This is only one of the many severe cases of rheumatism that have been cured by this valuable remedy. Fifty cent bottles for sale by all druggists.
